Qe'ciyew'yew' Nimiipuu Health Behavioral Health Department

Special thanks to Karen Hendren, Behavioral Health Director, and Heather Foster, LMSW, for collaborating with the Lapwai School District in meeting the health needs of our students.

Heather will be available on-site during the week and has a new meeting space at the Middle-High School. She joins growing resources within the district to provide a safe and supportive learning environment.

TEACHING TOLERANCE GRANT AWARD LAPWAI NATIVE AMERICAN ARTS AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAM 8TH-12TH GRADES

Lapwai School District #341 is pleased to announce a grant award from Teaching Tolerance, a project of Southern Poverty Law Center, in the amount of $5000 for the Lapwai Native American Arts After School Program 8th-12th grades. Jenny Williams is the mentor/instructor for this program and she relates that, “We are very grateful for this grant funding and students are already busy working on wonderful NA Art projects and extending our reach and student ambassadorship into the community. The Teaching Tolerance Grant, which is a project of the Southern Poverty Law Center, has also partially funded ambassadorship opportunities for the recent Lapwai Young Women’s Leadership Conference and the upcoming Lapwai Young Men’s Leadership Conference. ” All of those involved in the program extend a sincere thank you to Teaching Tolerance for their generosity and for providing us with this exciting opportunity.
